Sculptural valet, by Carlo Brandelli,
Claridge's and Cenacchi International

Carlo Brandelli teamed up with Claridge's to redefine the gentleman's valet, creating this sculptural, unisex version. 'The materials are evocative of Claridge's deco past,' he says, referring to the piece's palm marquetry and bronze work, handmade by Cenacchi International. 'My design, however, is contemporary and angular, a floating C, which stands for Claridge's (and Carlo).'

Carlo Brandelli

Kilgour's freelance creative director segues from fashion to sculpture with aplomb. His sculptural works have featured in solo shows at Paris' RCM Galerie and at Florence's Palazzo Medici at the invitation of Pitti Uomo. carlobrandelli.com

Claridge's

London's art deco jewel retains many 1920s features, while still keeping up with the times. David Collins revamped the Claridge's Bar, while David Linley and Diane von Furstenberg have refurbished rooms. claridges.co.uk
